

Nicholas Bajwa focuses on wills and probate as well as property tax disputes. His practice includes developing and implementing individual estate plans for small and medium estates, drafting wills, revocable "living" trusts, Alaska Community Property, and administering probate and trust estates. Nick graduated from the University of Minnesota. Nick is married and has two children.

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Routh Crabtree, APC, Anchorage, AK

- Associate Attorney (February 2007-July 2008)
- A high caseload of civil litigation involving creditor's remedies, real estate, and general business law.

Richard Diamond & Associates, Minnetonka, MN

- Attorney/Clerk (July 2006- January 2007)
- Assisted counsel on a related set of cases involving issues of insurance law and damage determination in state and federal court at the district and appellate level.

National Arbitration Forum, St. Louis Park, MN

- Law Clerk (May 2005-July 2006)
- Prepared arbitration-related articles for local and national publication on topics including commercial real estate and ERISA.

Hennepin County District Court, Minneapolis, MN

- Clerk (March 2005-June 2005)
- Drafted memos and orders on cases including disputes in contract law and partnership law.

EDUCATION

University of Minnesota Law School, Minneapolis, MN

- J.D. (2006)
- Graduated cum laude.
- Moot Court participant where twice nominated for best oralist.

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

- B.A. Cultural Anthropology (2000)
- James B. Angell Scholar (awarded for perfect scholarship over consecutive terms)
- Attended classes at the Universidad de Buenos Aires in 2000.

BAR ADMISSIONS/LANGUAGES

BAR ADMISSIONS

Alaska (2007)

Minnesota (2006)

BAR SECTIONS

Estate Planning and Probate

Tax

LANGUAGES

Fluent in Spanish, both spoken and written. Also experienced in Spanish-English translations. Worked as a teacher and translator in Santiago, Chile, and as an interpreter and translator in business settings in St. Paul, MN.